

CEO & COMPANY DECEPTION · SCRIPT BThey lied to a city council. Do not renew on trust

Tip: swap bracketed fields. Cite numbers carefully. End with the cancel / yearly-vote ask.

Mayor Crawford, members of City Council. My name is [Your Name], and I live in Crossville.

Who you buy from matters, not just the camera hardware.

Start with a concrete lie to a city council. In Oshkosh, Wisconsin, in April 2026, a council member asked whether Flock creates a heat map of a vehicle's movement. Flock's chief information security officer said no, that is not available. The next morning the police chief confirmed the system does create heat maps. Council rescinded seven to zero. The ACLU later cited Oshkosh in a report on Flock repeatedly misleading governments. Flock called it a "minor nuance."

The CEO record matches that pattern of hostility to oversight. Public remarks about federal access had to be walked back. Customer messaging cast FOIA and public-records requests as a coordinated attack. In a Forbes interview, Garrett Langley likened people who map publicly visible cameras to a terroristic or Antifa-style threat. Staunton, VA, cancelled after that fight over values.

I support the police. I do not support paying a company that understates what the product can do when councils ask, then attacks residents who ask hard questions. Crossville does not need to wait for our own Oshkosh moment.

THE ASK (say this)

My ask is clear. Cancel Crossville's Flock contract and remove the cameras. Require a public hearing and a recorded City Council vote before any surveillance equipment is ever proposed again. If you will not cancel yet, take a recorded yes-or-no vote each year before any renewal, with no automatic renewal that skips a public vote, and publish monthly use reports the public can check. Thank you. I yield.
